Heroes Never Die

My former neighbor and younger sister of my missing fiancé and friend of forty years stole the deed to my property before I sold it.

Among those important documents were multiple copies of my parents' death certificates, which also included several blank death certificates handed over in the stack when I purchased ten copies of each.

Those were also stolen.

Pamela Jo Daby and the white supremacist narcissistic abuser Patty was trying to escape when she disappeared from Lake Orion, Michigan - Thomas Wayne Randle - had sex at one of our family's holiday gatherings. She transmitted a strain of herpes to him.

It is possible that one of those blank death certificates was filled out with my name and presented to Patricia.

If so, this is a case of mental cruelty actionable in both civil and criminal court.

Still, no one will do anything, especially the corrupt Lake Orion police.
